Excerpt: .the year as they had opportunity, and on comparing their impressions, unite in the opinion that the school is doing for the pupils in attendance most valuable work, Milwaukee School. and that which should ba profitable to them and to the state when they take on themselves the responsibilities of teachers in our public schools. It is not possible in the brief space of this report to mention all the things worthy of notice in so complex an organization, embracing so many individuals from kindergarten to college grades. Yet the alertness and freedom in recitation, the readiness to give and take suggestions exhibited in some classes, whether due to the skill of the individual teacher or to the general influence of the school, are in either case very satisfactory and deserving of favorable comment. For the teacher to direct the work of the class as a leader rather than through the force of authority seems in a normal school dealing with teachers and those about to become teachers, very appropriate and desirable. The easy use of our language, the apparent fluency and readiness of speech manifested in some of the higher classes was such as might, be expected of advanced students, but is not always found. Conference with different members of the faculty brings out the fact that the requirements of the present course of study have not been found altogether satisfactory or easy of adjustmsnt. Nor is ths reason for this far to...
