Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Michigan and Its Resources: Sketches of the Growth of the State, Its Industries, Agricultural Productions, Institutions, and Means of Transporation; Descriptions of Its Soil, Climate, Timber, Financial Condition, and the Situation of Its Unoccupied Lands; And a Review of Its General The first edition of this work was issued in 1881, consisting of 12,000 copies, and was exhausted early in 1882. They were distributed upon application into every State and Canada. Soon after an edition of 5,000 copies was printed in the German language, also a similar edition in the Dutch language for Hollanders. Three thousand were issued in February following and the same number in April. A little more than three months after the first edition was published a second edition of 20,000, enlarged and thoroughly revised, was issued. Much more valuable information was furnished in the second edition relative to finances, leading institutions and industries of the State, together with facts derived from the statistics of 1880, railroad development, etc. It was found later that this supply was insufficient and 10,000 additional copies were issued, making a total of 42,000 in the English language. Ten thousand more were ordered in February, which were soon exhausted. The third edition was issued in 1883, giving a sketch of each county and general information about the State. This, too, was exhausted before 1885, and still applications were made for the book. The Legislature of 1891 authorized the reissue of the work, but the Governor failed to sign the act. In 1893 the Legislature authorized its recompilation and the reissue of 12,000 volumes, 8,000 copies of which were to go to the World s Fair, at Chicago, for...
